

NWR-BSAT CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

The Northwest Regional Education Service District Behavioral Safety Assessment Team (NWR-BSAT) does not case manage. The NWR-BSAT is a consultation team that assesses violence and assists schools with threat management and the identification of resources.

The following rules apply while staffing behavioral safety assessments and violence occurrences through the NWR-BSAT process:

1. The confidentiality policies of your agency apply.
2. You are responsible for any material (hard copy, documents, reports, etc.) that you present and its dissemination and retrieval after presentation.
3. You are responsible for the confidentiality (see #1) of any documents collected through staffing.
4. If you intend to take action as part of your agency's role, that action must be shared with the NWR-BSAT at the staffing.
5. As circumstances change, cases may be restaffed by the NWR-BSAT at the request of a school and/or school district.
