On this page, you will also be given the option to subscribe to book-related newsletters tailored to your genre interests. We want to be able to get you the best in library news and events, as well as give you some great book and movie recommendations.

When Will the Library Re-Open?

We sure wish we knew! We would love to be open today but we need to follow state and county guidelines in order to open safely. We need to keep our patrons and our staff safe, so we will be opening up in phases. We are currently offering Curbside Pickup and you can read all about that below.

Curbside Pickup Going Strong!

Because our libraries are all closed for COVID-19, we have started a no-contact curbside pickup at all of our Tillamook County Library locations. You can either place the items you want reserved on our website (<http://encore.oceanbooks.org/>), or call 503-842-4792 for help with your holds. Click HERE for complete details.

However, it is not the last we will see of Sara. The search for the new director has been slowed by COVID-19, so Sara has agreed to continue to serve the library in a part-time capacity after her retirement. Stay tuned for more information on the progress of the new library director recruitment.
