

Changing Seasons at Your Library

Speaking of Changes...

We are conducting our annual survey of patrons and the results are especially important this year as we finalize our reopening plans. Please take five minutes to tell us how we can improve our services. Click the link below to be taken directly to our survey.

Director Search Reopened

Our first Library Director search was greatly interrupted by COVID and ended up being a failed recruitment. The position is open for applicants again and we are hoping for a positive outcome this time. We'll let you know as soon as we have any news to announce! You can view the application information by clicking here - https://www.junegarcia.com/June\_Garcia/Current\_Searches.html

Online Storytime Programs

Great Online Entertainment... from Your Library!

Our creative staff has been busy filming some wonderful programs for you to view on your computer or other device. We store most of these on YouTube so you can access our library of programs by clicking this link...

When Will the Libraries Reopen?

Reopening Soon?

We sure hope so! We are in the process of getting approval to open our libraries to the public. This phase will be called Library Express...think the Express Line at the grocery store. You come in, find what you want, and get out with a smile on your face and a book in your hands! We're hoping to limit library visits to 15 minutes and we will be following state guidelines, requiring masks and social distancing. To keep up to date with our latest library news and announcements, follow us on our web page or at any of the social media links shown below.
