December Fun at Garibaldi

The Garibaldi Library held a special storytime on December 10th where Tia Mautner and a friend worked on a gingerbread men craft. Thanks to everyone who participated, and we hope you will join us for fun at the library in the future!

New Website Sneak Peek!

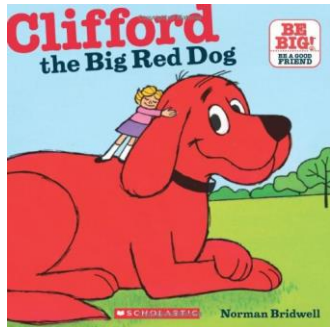

The Tillamook County Library has been working on a new website for several months, as our current state sponsored website will be shutting down this summer. After a bidding process, we began work on the new site. We are very pleased with the progress and cannot wait to unveil the new look! You'll find the same great information, with improved responsive design to make it much easier to read on a variety of screen sizes. Stay tuned for the new website in the coming year.
