

Community Reads—about Food!

Join us for our spring community reads program, One County, One Book! From the months of March to May, we invite you all to read the same book: “The Town that Food Saved: How one community found vitality in local food” by Ben Hewitt. We will spend the next three months discussing the book with a variety of programs at the Tillamook

Library. Once you’ve read the book, you can enter for a chance to win a gift certificate to a farmer’s market! Fill out your mini book review bookmark at the library or post your review to our Facebook event page. Look forward to making garden pots, discussing local food policy, or watching the documentary Ingredients. You can check out the book from the library or request your own copy from the Ford foundation at tfff.org/select-books. We also have a book choice for younger readers: “Oh Say Can You Seed” by Bonnie Worth.

Make Hypertufa Garden Pots!

Come and learn how to make Hypertufa! Join local science guy Clair Thomas as he shows us all how to make hypertufa, a light yet sturdy stone substitute made from rock aggregates and cement. This free event will be held at the Tillamook Library on Tuesday, March 10th, 2015 from 3pm to 4:30pm. Be sure to call ahead and sign up at 503-842-4792.

Book, Bake and Plant Sale to support Pacific City Library

The South Tillamook County Library Club is pleased to announce their annual fundraising sale! They will have books, baked goods, and plants for sale all day Saturday, March 21st from 9am to 3pm at the Kiawanda Community Center. Come and grab some goodies and support the South Tillamook County Library. If you have any questions, please contact Joani at 503-965-3681.

New Website is coming soon!

Be sure to keep your eyes open for our new website! The library catalog will remain unchanged. We are improving our other website at www.tillabook.info where you can find branch information, online resources, calendars of events, and more. The new site will have an updated look and be easy to use. Stay tuned to see our progress!

Zinio lets you check out selected library magazines on your digital device! You can keep issues forever, and check out as many as you want at a time! While that's already pretty great, Zinio is getting better. Beginning March 10th, new signups to Zinio will only have to create one account in order to join! If you've been waiting to sign up, now is the time. If you are an existing user, your app will continue to work as before. If you want to delete your old app and start new, your old content should transfer over to the new and simpler app.

Do you have a young child in your life? Parents of kids aged 0 – 5 are invited to a six week educational series to teach children early literacy. Each session will begin with instruction and then end with practice time with your child. The first session was on Wednesday, February 18th, 2015 at 5pm. The series will end on March 25th. Dinner and child care will be provided. Please call Miss Melanie at 503-842-4792 with questions.

Tax help update

AARP tax help is now officially ready to take sign ups. We ask that you come into the Tillamook Library to sign up so that we can give you an informational sheet detailing what items to bring. Appointments are available on Fridays until April 10th in half hour increments between 12pm and 4pm. The AARP volunteers are qualified only to help with personal returns and cannot help businesses at this time.

If you aren't lucky enough to get an appointment, we can still help you get those taxes finished. The IRS has sent copies of forms 1040, 1040A, and 1040EZ to all libraries, but no instruction booklets. We can print forms from the IRS website at 10 cents a page. We will also try and extend your computer time if you are working on taxes as long as no other patrons are waiting.

Visit the Bookstore!

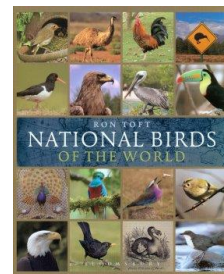

The Corner Bookstore is run by the Tillamook Library Foundation, with all proceeds benefiting the Tillamook Library. The store is staffed by dedicated volunteers. If you would like to volunteer at the bookstore please call 503-842-4792. The bookstore is open from 11am to 3pm Monday through Saturday.

The Corner Bookstore sells books, CDs and movies on everything from sports to crafts to poetry. They also have a small section of books you can pick up absolutely free! You'll find something for everyone.

Live and Learn

Highlighting new books worth reading

National Birds of the World by Ron Toft

Tillamook County is blessed with birds and bird lovers! It turns out countries all over the world have welcomed feathered friends into their cultures. You'll be surprised at the variety of birds in this book as well as the ways birds influence the countries where they live.
