Food Documentary Ingredients to screen at Tillamook Library

If you are interested in the local food movement, this is a great chance to learn a little more. Join us in the Community rooms at the Tillamook Library on Saturday, May 16th 2015 for this free movie showing, which includes profiles of local food producers in Oregon. Don't forget to turn in your book reviews of 'The Town that Food Saved' to enter for your chance to win a prize during our Community Reads program!

New Website arrives this month!

Our new library website arrives this month! This is an improvement for tillabook.org -- the library catalog will remain unchanged. You will see the same great information, including databases, events, and new titles presented in a much cleaner format. Stay tuned to see our progress, and be sure to call 503-842-4792 with any questions.

★ Memorial Day Closure

All Tillamook County Library branches will be closed on Monday, May 25th, 2015 for Memorial Day. Please have a safe long weekend.

Dementia Workshop

In a partnership with Adventist Health and the OSU Extension office, the Tillamook County Library will be hosting two informational dementia workshops on Thursday, May 14th, 2015. These free workshops are designed for caregivers and loved ones of people with dementia, and you may attend one or both. Come to the Tillamook Library Community rooms from 9:30am to 11:30am for a workshop on Understanding Dementia. Or attend the afternoon workshop from 1pm to 3pm on the Challenging Behaviors of Dementia. This free event is open to the public.

Futures Council Town Halls

As our efforts to develop a futures plan for the library are approaching completion, we'd like to invite the public to a series of town hall meetings to review and provide feedback on the library's draft 2015-2020 Futures Plan. Town Halls will be held May 12th at the Manzanita Library at 1pm, May 12th at the Tillamook Library at 5:30pm, or May 13th at the Pacific City Library at 1pm.

Summer Reading Preview

Summer Reading is just around the corner, and it's going to be a Super Summer!

Kids: Every Hero Has a Story!

We'll have all the usual fun activities this summer including special programs at every branch. Look for sign-up information from your child's school or sign up at the library after June 22nd.

Teens: Unmask!

Older kids don't have to miss out. We'll have sign-ups at any library branch this summer, and several great teen themed programs held at the Tillamook Library. Be sure to sign up to win great prizes and enjoy fun with friends.

Adults: Escape the Ordinary

We are going to be DIY superheroes this summer with a series of creative and informative programs designed to help you learn new skills! We'll discuss home repairs, cooking, even bicycles! Stay tuned in June for the full schedule.

Legal Info Resource Center

We have a new legal resource to share with you! It's called the Legal Information Reference Center, and it's an online database that features the NOLO Catalog of legal books as well as sample legal forms. Topics covered include landlord/tenant law, wills and estate planning, and immigration and travel. To use this new database, go to the databases tab of www.tillabook.org and click on Legal Information Resource Center. Use 'Tillamook' for your patron ID and 'Oregon' for the password.

Visit the Bookstore!

The Corner Bookstore is run by the Tillamook Library Foundation, with all proceeds benefiting the Tillamook Library. The store is staffed by dedicated volunteers. If you would like to volunteer at the bookstore please call 503-842-4792. The bookstore is open from 11am to 3pm Monday through Saturday.

The Corner Bookstore sells books, CDs and movies on everything from sports to crafts to poetry. They also have a small section of books you can pick up absolutely free! You'll find something for everyone.

Highlighting new books worth reading

Being Mortal: Medicine and what matters in the end by Atul Gawande

This sobering read explores the themes of end of life care and raises important questions about cures vs. suffering. Written by a practicing surgeon, and full of true stories, this book explores what a doctor's true purpose ought to be.
