Filmmaker program to discuss William Stafford

The Oregon Reads 2014 program will spend the year celebrating poet William Stafford. This month, the Tillamook Library is proud to host filmmaker Haydn Reiss for a screening of his documentary short, Every War Has Two Losers.

The film is based on the journals of William Stafford, who was a conscientious objector during World War II. Come and watch the film, then stay for a discussion on poetry, pacifism, and filmmaking. This free event will be held at the Tillamook Library on Tuesday, February 11th, beginning at 6pm.

Garden seeds now available at all branches

The Tillamook Seed Library is expanding this year! Every Tillamook Library branch now has packets of vegetable and flower seeds available to check out for free. You may check out 10 packets of seeds this spring. During harvest, let a few plants go to seed. Collect the seeds and return them to the library in the fall so we have some to hand out next year! Check your library or www.tillabook.org for books and resources on seed saving. Even the bookmobile is in on the fun!

Libraries closed for President's Day

All Tillamook County Library branches will be closed on Monday, February 17th, for the President's Day Holiday. Have a safe and happy holiday, and we will reopen on Tuesday with normal hours.

Blind date with a book

Go on a blind date—with a book! Our library staff has selected some of our favorites and then wrapped them up to hide them! Check out this display upstairs at the Tillamook Library during the month of February.

Trivia Nights at Pelican Tap Room

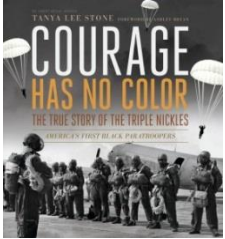

There is still time to get in on the trivia fun at the Pelican Tap Room in Tillamook. Teams are limited to five people and sign ups start at 6pm, with the trivia beginning at 6:30. Join us on Mondays February 3rd and 17th.

February is African American History Month

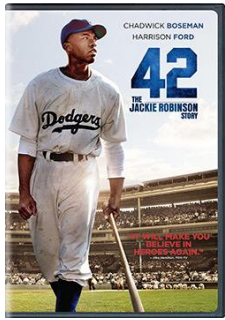

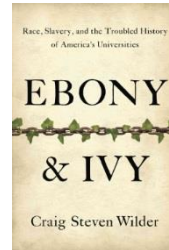

Courage has no color: the true story of the triple nickies—America's first black paratroopers by Tanya Lee Stone

The first all-black paratrooper unit trained for WWII, but instead ended up fighting fires. This book traces their story as well as their ultimate recognition as WWII soldiers.

Ebony and Ivy: Race, slavery, and the troubled history of America's Universities by Craig Steven Wilder

The author explores the history of America's colleges in regards to slavery. From Christianizing the 'savages' to buildings built with plantation money, it's an uncomfortable and thorough history.

42: The Jackie Robinson Story starring Chadwick Boseman and Harrison Ford

Have a family movie night and see the story of Jackie Robinson, the first African American to play in baseball's Major Leagues. This film would be a fun, engaging way to share this part of American history with your children. Baseball manager Branch Rickey is also highlighted in the film, as he was instrumental in signing Robinson to the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Tax forms available

It's time for taxes! Please stop by your library branch to pick up select tax forms, and keep checking back for the forms we have not yet received. You may also use the library computers to file your taxes online, or print additional forms from the irs.gov website for 10 cents a page.

Visit the Bookstore!

The Corner Bookstore is run by the Tillamook Library Foundation, with all proceeds benefiting the Tillamook Library. The store is staffed by dedicated volunteers. If you would like to volunteer at the bookstore please call 503-842-
