Book, Bake and Plant Sale to Benefit the Pacific City Library

The South Tillamook County Library club will be having their annual sale of Books, Baked Goods and Plants from 9:00am - 3:00pm at the Central Building (next to the Post Office) in Pacific City. Supporting club members will be allowed to shop at 8:00am. If you are not yet a member of the Library club, you can join at the sale. There will also be a quilt raffle courtesy of The Tuesday Stitchers. If you have any questions, please call Joani at 503-965-3681.

Divergent Party Teen Program

The new movie 'Divergent,' based on the YA novel by Veronica Roth, will be released in theaters on March 21st! To get ready for the movie, the Tillamook Library will be holding a Divergent Party for teens on Thursday, March 20th, beginning at 5:30pm. We'll be playing several games based on the book including an aptitude test and initiation, although our games will be a little different from the book—no blood! Expect fun and games and snacks, and come celebrate before you watch the movie. This program is free to attend and open to all teenagers.

Trivia Nights at Pelican Tap Room

If you haven't been to a trivia night yet, this is the month to try it out! The March 17th trivia night will be St. Patrick's Day themed, with special food, lots of green, and tons of Irish trivia! Please join us at 6pm to sign up for teams, and the questions will begin around 6:30pm. This event is held at the Pelican Tap Room on the corner of first and Stillwell in Tillamook.

Haydn Reiss Film Donations

If you missed last months' program on William Stafford with filmmaker Haydn Reiss, you have another chance to view the film. Mr. Reiss generously donated a copy of both of his films to our library. You can find Every War has Two Losers and Rumi: Poet of the Heart in our online catalog at encore.oceanbooks.org.

Digital Image Collections in Encore

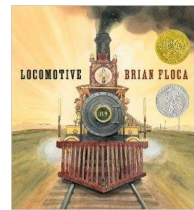

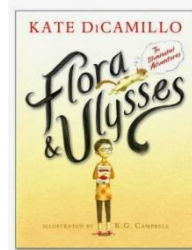

You may have noticed a small change to our catalog at encore.oceanbooks.org. We now have a tab set aside just for images! These digital images will be mostly local interest, including yearbooks, obituaries, and historical photos. For an example, try searching 'Bay City.' We are working to add more content all the time, so keep checking back to learn more about our amazing local history.

Salmon Release at Bay City Library

The Bay City Library has once again been successful in hatching a couple hundred salmon eggs, and they are just about ready to leave! If you would like to help release the small fry, please leave your name and number with Debby at the Bay City Library at 503-377-0231. When the fish are ready, she will let you know and then you can help release them into the wild.
