September Library Events

Wave goodbye to VHS Tapes

Our VHS Tapes have been hard at work since the 1980's, and it is time for them to retire. Checkouts have been steadily declining as DVDs have become more popular. Also, new releases can no longer be purchased on VHS. We will still keep local history VHS and some kids videos. All other videos will be removed from library shelves on September 3rd, 2014. Feel free to return videos you may have checked out after that date. The VHS tapes will be sold by the library foundation bookstore—stay tuned for more information on that sale. Happy retirement, VHS!

Tillamook Library will close for Labor Day Holiday

All Tillamook Library branches will be closed for Labor Day on Monday, September 1st. We will re-open on Tuesday with normal hours. Please enjoy a safe holiday.

Try out Zinio digital magazines!

The Tillamook County Library recently purchased a great new database that we are so excited about—it's called Zinio! Zinio allows you to check out and borrow digital magazines using your mobile device. Once the magazine is checked out, you get to keep it forever! Read the latest issue as soon as it arrives! Check out a magazine at the same times as other people! We have 50 titles to choose from. Go to www.tillabook.org/databases and click Zinio to get started, or call 503-842-4792 ext. 1701 for help.
