

Geek the Library

You may have noticed some new decoration at the library if you have stopped in recently—Geek the Library posters! Geek the Library is a way to share your passions with your friends and show your support for libraries. We encourage you to come to the library, make your own geek poster, and see what your friends are really passionate about.

Summer Reading party!!

The 2011 Children's Summer Reading program officially ended August 18 with a big party! Three to four hundred people attended the event and listened to stories, watched a special puppet show, and ate cake to celebrate. Children who had completed the summer reading program also picked up their free book. Over the course of the summer the Tillamook County Library system had 974 kids, 200 teens, and 869 adults participating. Special programs were held at every branch, and included musicians, cultural events, even a reptile man! Be sure to join us next year for even more fun and great prizes. We want to say a big thank you to our participating sponsors, including Denny's, Papa Murphy's, and all of our special guest performers. Thanks to all of our readers for making it a fun and successful summer!

Chat with a librarian!

Did you know that you don't have to come down to the library to get our help? You can ask us a question anytime online. Just go to www.tillabook.info and scroll down. In the middle left, you'll find a chat window. Type your question, push enter, and one of our librarians will do their best to help you! The service is available from 9am to 9pm Monday through Thursday, and 9am to 5:30pm Friday and Saturday.

Bookmobile stop to Oceanside Cancelled

Beginning July 18, Hwy 131 to Oceanside is closed until crews can repair the slide above Happy Camp. Until the road reopens, there will be no Bookmobile service to Oceanside. Please watch our website (www.tillabook.info) for further information.

Attention teachers and daycare providers!

Would you like a personalized storytime just for your class? How about an introduction to and tour of the main library? Maybe a scavenger hunt? How about just great fun for all? If this sounds like fun to you, call Ms. Melanie at the library at 503-842-4792 ext. 1784 and she'll make it happen!

Highlighting books worth reading

Dungeness Crabs and Blackberry Cobblers by Janie Hibler

Take advantage of blackberry season and try a few new recipes celebrating Pacific NW cuisine. Not just a recipe collection, the book is also full of historical photos and vignettes, linking the past with current culinary variations. An index of ingredients as well as a suggested reading list makes the book a valuable resource.
