

Oregon Is Indian Country

The Tillamook County Library invites one and all to view a special exhibit of Oregon's Native American heritage, Oregon Is Indian Country, showing March 1st through the 28th.

Oregon Is Indian Country represents a groundbreaking project bringing all nine Oregon tribes together to present information never-before-assembled in one exhibit on contemporary indigenous cultures. Oregon's Indian traditions will be illustrated from many art forms including native voices, historical artifacts, photographs and more, producing a powerful exhibition.

The exhibit is a direct result of the Oregon Tribes Project, a multi-year collaboration between the Oregon Historical Society's Folklife Program and Oregon's nine federally recognized tribes. Tribal members documented their contemporary traditions and worked with Society staff to plan a series of heritage resources to be used to teach about tribal histories and cultures.

The exhibit is located on the second floor of the Tillamook Library and can be viewed during regular library hours. For more information please call 503-842-4792.

Staff Choice: The Inimitable Jeeves by P.G. Wodehouse

In P.G. Wodehouse's classic stories about a gentleman and his gentleman's gentleman, we follow the hapless but lovable Bertie from one misadventure to the next—accidental engagements, calamitous lunches with the terrifying Aunt Agatha, clashes with noted nerve specialists and run-ins with bizarre political parties—each imbroglio neatly put right in the end by the faithful Jeeves.

In this book, Bertie's friend Bingo falls in love with every other woman he meets, from Mabel, the waitress at the bun shop, to the Amazonian Honoria Glossop (whom Aunt Agatha has earmarked for Bertie).
