

Vol. 3 No. 7
July 2010

Tillamook

County

Library

Best Selling Author Phillip Margolin at the Tillamook Library

New York Times best-selling author, Phillip Margolin, will speak at the Tillamook County Library on July 10th at 1:00 p.m. Doors will open at 12:30 p.m. and refreshments will be served. Phillip Margolin, author of compelling legal thrillers, lives in Portland, Oregon. He will be signing copies of his newest book Supreme Justice, sequel to Executive Privilege, after the program. Rainy Day Books will be on hand selling copies of his latest thriller.

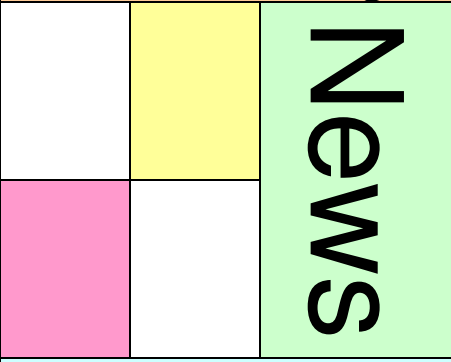

Phillip Margolin grew up in New York City and Levittown, New York. In 1965, he graduated from the American University in Washington, D. C. with a bachelor's degree in government. From 1965 to 1967, he was a Peace Corps volunteer in Liberia, West Africa. In 1970 he graduated from New York University School of Law. During his last two years in law school he went at night and worked his way through by teaching junior high school in the South Bronx in New York City. His first job after law school was a clerkship with Herbert M. Schwab, the Chief Judge of the Oregon Court of Appeals. From 1972 until 1996, he was in private practice in Portland, Oregon specializing in criminal defense at the trial and appellate levels.

Margolin has been writing full-time since 1996. All of his novels have been New York Times bestsellers. Heartstone, his first novel, was nominated for an Edgar for best original paperback mystery of 1978 by the Mystery Writers of America. His second novel, The Last Innocent Man, was made into an HBO movie. Gone, But Not Forgotten has been sold to more than 25 foreign publishers and debuted as a television miniseries in 2004.

Since 1996, he has also been the President and Chairman of the Board of Chess for Success, a non-profit charity that uses chess to teach study skills to elementary and middle school children in Title I schools.

The Tillamook County Library is proud to host this special author event. Funds for this program have been provided by the Tillamook County Library Foundation.

July Library Events

Thursday, July 1: Join the fun with Mad Science at 2 p.m. at the Tillamook library (ages 6-12).

Sunday, July 4: Have a safe and festive Fourth of July!

Monday, July 5: The library will be closed today in observance of Independence Day.

Thursday, July 8: Prepare to be swept away by the wonderful stories of Chris Leebrick. The show starts at 2 p.m. at the Tillamook library (ages 6-12).

Saturday, July 10: Author Phillip Margolin will talk about his new book at 1 p.m. at the Tillamook library.

Wednesday, July 14: Local author and historian Garry Gitzen will talk about his new book at 7 p.m. at the Tillamook library.

Thursday, July 15: The musical Rick Huddle will perform today at 2 p.m. at the Tillamook library (ages 6-12).

Thursday, July 22: Delight in the juggling antics of Charlie Brown at 2 p.m. at the Tillamook library (ages 6-12).

Thursday, July 29: Have fun at the Tillamook library with the Border Collie International Dog Show at 2 p.m. (ages 6-12).

Attention Teens: Make Waves, Make Hula-hoops!

The Teen Summer Reading Program continues at the Tillamook County Library. If you are between the ages of 13 and 18, join us at the Tillamook library July 1st at 5:30 p.m. and make a hula-hoop!

Be sure to join us for these other exciting Teen Summer Reading events:

July 8: Movie event
“Endless Summer II”

July 15: Fun rubber duck painting activity

July 22: Build your own felt sea monster

July 29: Get radical and make your own protest pin

All events are at the Tillamook library and start at 5:30 pm

Staff Choice: The Lacuna (audiobook narrated by author Barbara Kingsolver)

Put Diego Rivera, Frida Kahlo, Leon Trotsky and McCarthyism together in one brilliant novel and prepare to be amazed and totally intrigued! An epic 30-year journey between Mexico and the United States, brings the hero huge success as an historical fiction writer, especially of Cortez's conquest of the Aztecs. But then, because of loose associations with Diego and Trotsky, he's dragged over the coals by a media who cares little about the truth and by all the wrong questions put forth by a suspicious FBI during an era of senseless fear and ignorance. Kingsolver's narration gives so much to the story. She has bested herself --- once again!

Hey Kids!
Do you have an interesting collection?

The Tillamook Library Children's Department is looking for interesting collections.

Collections will be on display for one month and will be placed behind protective glass in the case located in the children's area of the library.

If you are interested in showing off your collection please call 503 842-4792 and ask for Kathy or Judy.

Would you like to share your collection in our display case?

Call the Tillamook County Library
503-842-4792
ask for Elki

On Display Now: Upstairs Case: Maps from the Tillamook County Pioneer Museum

Foyer Case: Adult & Teen Summer Reading
Downstairs Cabinet: Summer Reading Prizes