

READ Posters at the Tillamook Library!

Share Your Joy of Reading!

The first celebrity READ poster, featuring actor/comedian Bill Cosby, appeared in 1985. Many stars have donated their time and copyright use of their photographs to make READ posters to “encourage young people to read for the sheer enjoyment of reading.”

We think our local readers are celebrities too. If you would like to make your own READ poster bring one of your favorite books to the front desk. A helpful staff member will happily take your photograph and, in a couple of days, your READ poster will be on display through the end of May. Each participant will qualify to enter a drawing for one official American Library Association READ poster. The drawing for the Twilight READ poster and the Danica Patrick READ poster will be held on Saturday, May 30th.
