

Visit Us at the Tillamook County Fair

Join the Excitement!

We will be parked in our usual spot, near the "giant cheese block entrance", right on the way to the carnival rides. We have a bunch of fun items to give away, but the thing we are most proud of are the free kid's books! It is an annual highlight for us to put books into the hands of kids at the fair and see their eyes light up with excitement when they realize this is their book to keep forever! We also have kazoos, key chains, bookmarks, and pencils to give away. Don't forget to stop into our always-popular button making station! And, we have a giant library card for you to pose with for a picture!

Come hang out! We have free stuff for all ages.
