

Welcome Back to Saturday Hours!

Hooray for Saturdays!

Starting Saturday, March 13, we are adding Saturday hours at the libraries in Tillamook, Manzanita, and Pacific City! You can stop in from 10 AM to 3 PM at any of these locations for 15 minute browsing or a 30 minute computer session. We hope to add more Saturday hours at other locations as soon as possible, and with any luck, we can get some evening hours back for you, too!

More Good News! The Book Store is Open, Too!

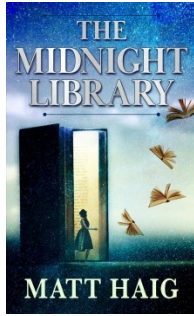

Library Foundation Bookstore Reopens!

We know you have been missing the Library Bookstore inside the Tillamook Library, and they have missed seeing you, too! Their shelves are stocked with bargains galore, so please stop in. Because of their small size, only one person or family is allowed inside at a time, but if you are looking for inexpensive finds, this is the place to shop. Hours are variable at this time...please call ahead.

Books Overtake DVDs in Popularity!

There are lots of things we can't explain about the pandemic, and here is one of them. We constantly keep track of what we call the "high demand hold list" so we can see what titles people are waiting for. Before COVID hit, DVDs always occupied the top 10 or 20 spots on the list. But that has totally flip-flopped now and currently, the first 16 most requested items are books...not DVDs! That is a trend we can get behind. One of those high demand holds is highlighted below.

The midnight library

by Matt Haig

Nora Seed finds herself faced with the possibility of changing her life for a new one, following a different career, undoing old breakups, or realizing her dreams of becoming a glaciologist. She must search within herself as she travels through the Midnight Library to decide what is truly fulfilling in life, and what makes it worth living in the first place.
