

Snow one day, sunshine the next!

The Rainbow Ends at Your Library!

Whether we are having sunshine, snow, or rainbows, the Tillamook County Library is always there for you. Stop in during our new expanded hours to take home a good read or a movie! All library locations now open until 6 PM on weekdays for your convenience.

Free Access to Consumer Reports!

Want Help Making a Major Purchase?

We now have access to Consumer Reports online! Get all the latest recommendations for electronics, cars, home goods and more with your library card.

You can log in from home or from the library to find out if that dishwasher you are looking at buying performs like a star. Click here to get access to this informative magazine.

Inform Yourself About the Library Levy

Library Levy on May 17 Ballot

The Tillamook County Library is funded by a 5 year operating levy, and we will go to the voters to ask for a renewal during the upcoming election. Find more information here!

Put the Ukulele Jam on Your Calendar!

Saturday, April 23, 11:00 AM

Join us at the Tillamook Library for a fun ukulele jam. We have ukes to borrow if you don't have one. No experience necessary!

Popular Book Alert!

Run, Rose, Run

by Dolly Parton

On the rise and on the run, a young singer-songwriter arrives in Nashville to claim her destiny, but it's also where the darkness she's fled might find her and destroy her. 1,000,000 first printing.

Tillamook County Library

1716 3rd St.
Tillamook, Oregon 97141
(503) 842-4792

tillabook.org/