

Thank You for Passing Our Levy!

We're Good for Five More Years!

Every five years, we go before the voters to ask them to continue to keep us open by passing the levy measure. The voters did it again and approved the levy so we can keep doing what we do best...bringing information, books, movies, and so much more to the residents of Tillamook County.

Thank you from all of us for your vote of confidence. From Manzanita, to Rockaway Beach, to Garibaldi, to Bay City, to Tillamook, and to Pacific City...AND all the farms and communities in between, we shout the biggest thank you to the voters! Thank you!

Farewell to Our Director, Geri

We will soon bid adieu to our library director for the past 16 months, Geri Godber. Geri is following her heart by heading back to the Midwest to be closer to her family. One of Geri's many accomplishments was to lead our library into being "fine free". Geri's other accomplishments are too many to list here, but we all agree that her time here, although short, did so much to make the Tillamook County Library a better place to visit. Her last day is Friday, June 3, so please try to stop in before then to wish her the best of luck. Thank you for everything, Geri!

Announcing Interim Director, Bill Landau

New Director Search is Underway!

We are thankful that Geri gave us plenty of notice of her departure, so recruitment is well under way for her replacement. In the meantime, former Branch Library Manager, Bill Landau, is returning from retirement to help out. You may also recognize Bill as the person who writes the library column for the Headlight Herald, sends out our e-newsletters, and leads the ukulele jam sessions for the library. He also has been known to dress up as Captain Book to promote the library!

Some Fun Summer Reads...

Book lovers

by Emily Henry

"A by-the-book literary agent must decide if happily ever after is worth changing her whole life for in this insightful, delightful new novel from the #1 New York Times bestselling author of Beach Read and People We Meet on Vacation. Nora Stephens' life is books—she's read them all—and she is not that type of heroine. Not the plucky one, not the laidback dream girl, and especially not the sweetheart. In fact, the only people Nora is a heroine for are her clients, for whom she lands enormous deals as a cutthroat literary agent, and her beloved little sister Libby. Which is why she agrees to go to Sunshine Falls, North Carolina for the month of August when Libby begs her for a sisters' trip away—with visions of a small town transformation for Nora who she's convinced needs to become the heroine in her own story. But instead of picnics in meadows, or run-ins with a handsome country doctor or bulging-forearmed bartender, Nora keeps bumping into Charlie Lastra, a bookish brooding editor from back in the city. It would be a meet-cute if not for the fact that they've met many times and it's never been cute. If Nora knows she's not an ideal heroine, Charlie knows he's nobody's hero, but as they are thrown together again and again—in a series of coincidences no editor worth their salt would allow—what they discover might just unravel the carefully crafted stories they've written about themselves"
