

Read To A Dog at the Garibaldi Branch Library!

JOIN US FOR

READ TO A DOG STORYTIME!

Where:
Garibaldi Branch Library

When:
Friday, September 30th,
3:00 pm

MEET AND INTERACT WITH AUTISM
ANCHOR DOGS IN TRAINING!

Scan the QR Code to learn more about Autism Anchor Dogs (AAD).

TCL

The Garibaldi Branch is going to the dogs this Friday! June has invited the Autism Anchor Dogs in training to come for a special storytime and the dogs are enthusiastic about the opportunity to be read to! So come on down to the Garibaldi Branch on Friday, September 30th at 3:00pm for this unmissable storytime!

Let's Look Back in Time

Greg Cermak, our local NASA Ambassador is back with another program! Join us Saturday, October 8th at 1:00pm to take a look at and discuss the James Webb Telescope's first images.

Brief Storytime Hiatus

Storytimes at the Tillamook Main Library are going on a temporary pause starting Wednesday, September 28th. We'll miss seeing you and hope to see you again on October 11th!

Did You Know...

You can learn another language with Mango Languages?

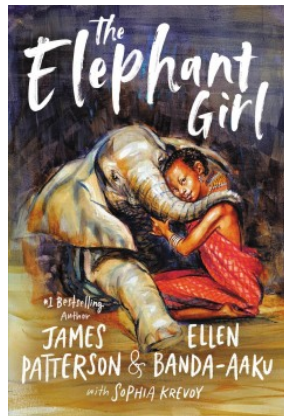

Signing up is quick and easy! Just make sure to have your library card handy.

If you signed up back in June 2014, when Mango first came to the library, go ahead and give it a second look! Mango has added several new features over the years, making it easier to use and learn.

What are you waiting for? Click here to get started.

New Arrivals

The elephant girl

by James Patterson

James Patterson and award-winning Zambian writer Ellen Banda-Aaku deliver an unforgettable survival story of a Maasai girl who faces down poachers to find a future among the elephants. Clever, sensitive Jama likes elephants better than people. While her classmates gossip - especially about the new boy, Leku - Jama takes refuge at the watering hole outside her village. There the twelve-year-old Maasai girl befriends a baby elephant she names Mbegu, Swahili for seed. When Mbegu's mother, frightened by poachers, stampedes, Jama and Mgebu are blamed for two deaths-one elephant and one human. Now Leku, whose mysterious and imposing father is head ranger at the conservancy, may be their only lifeline. Loosely inspired by true events, The Elephant Girl is a moving exploration of the bonds between creatures and the power of belonging.

The last Karankawas : a novel

by Kimberly Garza

Imagining a life elsewhere, undefined by her family's history, Carly Castillo, in a tight-knit community of Mexican and Filipino American families in Galveston, Texas, finds everything changed by the arrival of Hurricane Ike, which forces each resident to decide whether to hunker down or abandon their hard-won homes.

Tillamook County Library

1716 3rd Street
Tillamook, Oregon 97141
(503) 842-4792

tillabook.org