Grieving and Healing in the Outdoors of Oregon

Join us at the Tillamook Main Library on Saturday, July 8th at 2:00pm for a one-hour presentation by author and photographer Adam Sawyer!

Through a series of photos and essays, Sawyer details how time spent in the outdoors of Oregon has aided in his recovery from not just addiction, but the devastating loss of his life partner and home in early 2022. Sharing personal insights and perspectives from time spent in places ranging from urban parks to the state's grandest natural cathedrals, Sawyer's hope is to help reveal the redemptive and healing powers of Mother Nature. As well as how we all benefit greatly from time spent outside, wherever, and in whatever capacity we choose.

Adam Sawyer is an outdoor and travel writer, photographer, published author, guide, and public speaker based in the Northwest. In addition to a number of local outlets, his work has appeared in AAA Via and Journey, Backpacker, and British Columbia Magazines. He is the author of numerous guidebooks, including Hiking Waterfalls in Oregon, Urban Hikes Oregon, and 25 Hikes on Oregon's Tillamook Coast. His weekly Substack newsletter, Collecting Sunsets, covers a broad set of topics including grief, addiction and recovery, travel, and the healing powers of nature.
